Health requirements: Wyoming requires that all out of state animals be accompanied by a valid CVI. Further information can be found at the Wyoming state livestock board website. Diseased or injured animals will be removed from the fairgrounds upon recommendation of the show committee. Animals deemed unworthy of competition by the show committee may be barred from competition and removed from the grounds as well.

ALL GOATS MUST BE DEHORNED OR NATURALLY POLLED

Milk out at your own discretion-over uddered does will be discriminated against.

Bedding and feed: Bring your own bedding and feed.

There is a Tractor Supply Company and Bomgaars located on east Richards St. in Douglas if you need additional feed, bedding or other items. Douglas Feed and Ron's Supply is also available.

Penning: pens must be pre-reserved and will be assigned. Pens are 6x4x4. All animals must be penned on the fairgrounds. The show committee reserves the right to limit the amount of tack stalls and excessive penning requests in the event the barn nears capacity. Exhibitors will be notified if that becomes an issue.

Hold Harmless: Exhibitors and attendees at the show are personally responsible for their own health, safety and actions. By entering the show, you agree to hold the Wyoming Dairy Goat Association, Wyoming State Fairgrounds and Wyoming State Fair Board, along with their individual and respective employees, members, directors, sponsors and heirs harmless from and against any and all costs, expenses, damages, claims, lawsuits, judgements, losses and/or liabilities (including attorney fees) arising either directly or indirectly from or related to any and all claims made by or against any of the released parties due to bodily injury, death, loss of use, monetary loss, or any other injury from or related to my attendance at the show whether caused by negligence of the released parties or otherwise. This includes potential damages directly and/or indirectly related to the Covid-19 virus.
